ESH Comments: On 6/2/2015, at approximately 230pm the employee was taking garbage out to the dumpster at Lab G. As he walked around the back to close the lid he stepped off a ledge that is approximately 1 foot in height. As he stepped off the ledge he lost his balance causing him to stumble approximately 10 feet. He then fell and caught himself with his left arm on a raised piece of concrete sidewalk. He continued working that afternoon and then reported to medical the following morning 6/3/2015 with left arm and shoulder pain. He was given ice and OTC pain reliever. He is to report back later in the afternoon of 6/3/2015. Update: The employee was sent offsite to ortho and xrays for fracture were negative. Medical Comments: Cut 5th finger right hand while pushing 2 coils of sheet metal back into place. Clean and bandaid.

ESH Comments: The contract technician was moving a cart at MI-60 when the incident occurred. Two spools of thin metal sheeting used for magnetic shielding were mounted on the cart. The individual needed to move the cart to make room for other material. As he pushed the cart, with his hands on or in close proximity to the spools, the 5th finger on his right hand contacted the free edge of the spooled metal sheeting, resulting in a small laceration. He was not wearing gloves, though he had them available nearby. He reported to the Medical Office where he received first aid treatment; he returned to work with no restrictions. His supervisor informed him of the importance of wearing his gloves for material handling activities.
